J. B. WHITE

The vote in the prohibition election last Saturday is so convincing and conclusive it seems appropriate to suggest that while the law now is mandatory it should be changed to give the Commissioners' Courts some latitude in the way of exercising a wider discretion in ordering a poll. In the event a change is made in the law few courts would exercise option to call an election out of political consideration. Just how such a law should read is a question. This seems obvious: Where the sentiment of a county is so pronounced upon this or any other question, it is a waste of public money to hold Prohibition elections. In the recent election in Milam county it was apparent to informed men that the county would vote wet. To afford opportunity at public expense for a few lantern-jawed opportunists to disport themselves in the political limelight is a considerable overstepping of good Democratic principle. At the moment when all are convinced that Milam county is wet and is apt to stay that way, most everyone will agree that more cause should be shown in the future why the Court should call an election. There is no criticism here of the Court. It merely did what it was required to do under the law. That law should be made more accommodating, if possible to ward off in the future referendums which clearly do not emanate from the people as a whole. Aside from the considerable expense to the county in tax money there is no way to estimate the cost in time to the people who have to leave their jobs at a time when all men and women should be doubly at work for the war program. The drys cannot force another election until a year has passed. Twice within 5 years they have forced a vote on prohibition. Twice they have been overwhelmingly defeated. Must we again within a year re-enact this farce? Until such time as there appears a representative public demand for such a poll, let us hope the question will not be revived. In the meantime, with hundreds of our young and best away on the battle fronts, with no opportunity to express themselves, let us be on with the business in hand—winning the war and getting our house in order for the day when they shall triumphantly return to find we have altered none of their freedoms.

CHAS. C. SMITH IS NOW MAYOR OF CAMERON

ASKS PLANNING BOARD AND NAMES POLICEMAN

Mayor Smith shortly after he had taken the oath to begin serving a two year term, appointed a policeman to the city force and among other things suggested a street paving project and asked the consent of the council to build a model street as a basis on which to include other sections of the city in a paving area.

Retiring Mayor Leland Green administered the oath of office to all members of the City Council, to City Marshal, Dan Lunsford and to the City Secretary, Dan Tyson and Tax Collector, W. H. Stafford.

Mayor Green's last official act was to administer the oath to Chas. C. Smith. In a brief talk Mr. Green thanked the council for its co-operation and pledged his co-operation as a citizen to aid in Cameron's progress.

Among the last duties performed by Mr. Green was to institute a new system to improve the sanitary conditions here and to start a program for street repairs. Two car loads of material were on hand but due to the recent rains the work could not be started.

Generally it was conceded the city is badly in need of some fundamental public improvements, like streets, municipal building, sidewalks and new sanitary facilities and maintenance.

Mayor Smith is no stranger to municipal service. When this term ended he will have had 12 years as head of the city government. A man of outstanding ability and forthright in purpose, he now has an opportunity to put Cameron on the road to a better city. This the Mayor has pledged to do and is asking the Council to back him up in the program.

At Thorndale W. A. Urban was the moving spirit in the drive and through his efforts the final round up of war dollars enabled the county to oversubscribe its quota.

There was no announcement of the amount of money on hand.

10 Tons Waste Paper Collected by Local Pastor and Scouts

Father George Duda of St. Monica's Church in Cameron has collected 10 tons of waste paper for the war scrap pile.

Each day for a long time with Boy Scouts and other boys from the Parish he has been busy collecting paper for the war effort.

It was believed he had contributed the largest amount of waste paper of any man connected with the salvage campaign. The Scouts sell the paper and use the funds for worthy purposes and the government gets the pulp.

Pvt. Daniel Sheppard of Buckholts, now stationed at Camp Carson, Col was a Cameron visitor Thursday.

On Brazos Board

OXSHEER SMITH

GOVERNOR STEVENSON MAKES APPOINTMENT

Oxsheer Smith, President of the Citizens National Bank, has been named to the Board of Directors for the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson announced Friday that he had approved the Recommendation of the Board of Water Engineers that Mr. Smith be named to the Brazos Board.

The terms for which Mr. Smith has been named will expire on February 1, 1949.

The Chamber of Commerce recently wrote a letter to the Board of Water Engineers urging the appointment of Mr. Smith to the Board. Recommendations were also made by various civic organizations in Central Texas.

Milam county is vitally interested in the reclamation program of the Brazos Conservation District. Little River is the largest tributary of the Brazos and more area is devastated in Milam county than any other county in central Texas.

Mr. Smith, a life long citizen of the county, will feel a personal interest in the work of this board.

The program for reclamation calls for the construction of dams on the Leon and Lampassas rivers in Bell county. Also dams on the San Gabriel. Milam county will get no dams nor any of the commercial advantages but rich bottom lands annually devastated by flood will be protected.

DEMO COMMITTEE CONVENES SATURDAY

The Democratic Executive Committee for Milam county, has been called to meet Saturday, April 22, in the district court room of the court house in Cameron at 10 a. m.

The committee will name chairmen for the Precinct Primaries to be held on Saturday, May 6th to name delegates to the county convention to be held on Tuesday, May 9.

Precinct Primaries are held each four years in Texas as a part of the party system to name a candidate for President and Vice President. The process originates in the precinct conventions where delegates are named to the county convention and in turn delegates are named by the county convention to the state convention and from there delegates go to the national convention to vote upon the nomination of candidates.

It was regarded as highly important that the people be thinking along these lines and prepare for the precinct conventions.

Mrs. Fahrendorf expressed her appreciation for the co-operation she received during the weeks when this appeal was made. "The people have been deeply responsive to this appeal. We have assembled furnishings for these amputation wards that will not only be a credit to the hospital but worthy of the great and good people who live in Cameron and Milam county," said Mrs. Fahrendorf. "We have framed for each of the wards a suitable inscription to remind all who visit these rooms that their furnishings were contributed by the people of Cameron and Milam county."

Throughout this area Mrs. Fahrendorf is regarded as having made the greatest contribution of any to the home like surroundings so necessary to provide the proper atmosphere in which these wounded veterans may recuperate.

QUICK RECLAIMING OF CRIMEA IS RED AIM

Russian's whirlwind campaign to reclaim Crimea saw Red army troops surge Thursday through the capital city of Simferopol, only 32 miles from Sevastopol, and Moscow announced that the three Soviet columns streaking into the peninsula had captured 20,000 German and Romanian prisoners in the first five days of the race.

From all indications the Nazis were offering little resistance as they fell back upon Sevastopol, the "Jewel of the Crimea," where the Russians hung on for nine historic months in overwhelming wight. There was speculation whether the Nazis would hold up in the shattered naval base and endure a similar siege or would try to escape across 190 miles of the Black Sea to Romania.

In addition to Simferopol, 35 miles northwest of Sevastopol, the Russians reached through Yevpatoriya, on 1941-42 before they were crushed by the west coast 42 miles north of the naval base, and Feodosiya, 100 miles to the East. More than 600 Crimean towns were liberated yesterday, a Soviet communique said. In six days the Red army had reconquered three-fourths of the 10,000 square mile peninsula.

The dizzy pace of this Russian campaign overshadowed all other action on the eastern front. Soviet troops captured Ovidiopol, rail-ferry terminus southwest of Odessa, thus winding up that particular task, but there was no indication that any sizeable body of Nazis had been trapped in the Odessa pocket.

From Britain and Italy more than 1,000 American heavy bombers swarmed over Hitler's domain, fighting off packs of Nazi interceptors as they hurled bombs on aircraft plants and other military factories in Germany and Hungary. This marked the sixth straight day of the mighty preinvasion assault aimed at crushing the German air force.

LUNCH ROOM FUND TO PROTECT CONTRACTS

In response to numerous inquiries on the recent action by the House of Representatives turning down 1944-45 School Lunch Program, Granville G. Weaver, Area Supervisor, said he was informed by WFA's Office of Distribution that all existing contracts and those made prior to the end of June will be carried out and local sponsors will be fully reimbursed.

"Congress has not made final decision in connection with the Community School Lunch Program for the next fiscal year, but in any event funds already appropriated through June of this year will not be affected," Weaver explained.

He said at present there are 39 schools and 2199 children participating in the Community School Lunch Program in Milam County.

"Know Your Onions," Here's New Ceilings Announced by OPA

The OPA has released the new ceiling prices on the 1944 crop of dry onions. Effective April 12, 1944, the maximum wholesale price in the Houston District is $3.61 for a 50 pound bag of 1944 dry, yellow onions, and $3.76 for the white onions.

These prices are the maximum which can be figured under the regulation, taking all additions into consideration for carlot receivers, wholesalers and transportation. A wholesaler should continue to compute his own ceiling price under Revised Maximum Price Regulation 271, but should not arrive at a price higher than those above stated.

Retailers compute their prices on Thursday of each week, with a percentage markup over the net cost of the largest single purchase of the preceding 7 days. Since the wholesaler's ceiling is in effect from April 12, all retailers will be controlled by the ceiling prices on April 20, on which date in recalculating their ceiling prices, they may not take as their net cost a higher price than the maximum wholesale price. Therefore, on April 20, the maximum price at retail for 1944 dry, yellow onions will be 3 pounds for 30 cents and for 1944 dry, white onions, 3 pounds for 32 cents.

Sgt. John Westbrook Back From New Guinea Says Home Front Life Quiet After 21 Months In Battle; Many Hardships Encountered There

Staff Sgt. John Westbrook is at home after 21 months in New Guinea, South Pacific battle area, and finds things a bit quiet here as compared with the turbulent days he spent fighting the Japs under conditions of extreme hardship in the jungle.

Sgt. Westbrook has had a bitter experience. He comes from a long line of Texans and is the type of American soldier who can take it and dish it out too. His great grand father was the late Elijah Goodnight a brother of Charles Goodnight who developed almost half the continent in the cattle days. Both were Indian fighters.

Sgt. Westbrook is here for a short furlough. In 21 months over there he had only 15 days leave. He is unassigned but must report for duty soon. He is the son of Ed. Westbrook of Cameron and was born and reared here. A brother, Ray Westbrook has just passed his physical for the army.

Sgt. Westbrook found the fighting in New Guinea pretty much like the pioneers found it against the Indians. He had to match cunning against cunning and Texans know how to fight. "At first we fought the Japs pretty much in a civilized sort of way, but after a few days of it we fought him like he was fighting us and I think we beat him at the job. When we first went into New Guinea in July 1942, there were roughly 750 Americans and 1250 Australians. The Japs had landed 12000 Marines. When we finished the New Guinea campaign there were only about 1000 Japs left and they scattered to three nearby islands. Later we cleaned them out. Our outfit took only 3 prisoners."

Sgt. Westbrook was among the first units of the American army to go in. He was with the 32nd Division of infantry. Sgt. Westbrook was one of 104 men who pushed ahead to prepare an advanced base.

Sgt. Westbrook volunteered at Corpus Christi on December 10 after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. He is 32 and has one son Edward Lee and one daughter Kathryn Ann. He first trained at Camp Roberts in California. There were 900 men from Texas and Oklahoma in the outfit. Sgt. Westbrook said he had only 6 weeks total training and but two weeks with his weapons. In those days they had little equipment. Sgt. Westbrook said at one time he fought 8 days with only 2 small tins of food and some crackers. It was a problem of supply. "Now the equipment is rolling in. The people here have done a good job by supplying money through bond sales. When we got some Tommy guns we were pretty well armed and the boys did a grand job using them."

Sgt. Westbrook saw General Douglas MacArthur and heard him speak at the front. He thinks the General is tops as a fighting commander. He thinks the Japs are cowards but cunning. They have almost a total disregard for their lives. "They don't mind dying," he said, "we just had to go in and get them. Once I saw 190 Japs march 4 abreast right into American machine gun fire. All were killed. It started when a Jap called out from the jungle, 'hold your fire.' They came out and we mowed them down with machine guns. They are very tricky. They climb trees and will often jump out on you or shoot you from the trees, just any way they can to get you. One of their favorite tricks is to infiltrate our lines. They learn the names of our men and then slip back into the jungle. Then one day a Jap would say: 'Hey, Bill come here.' If Bill responded thinking the voice was that of one of his comrades, the Jap would shoot him. Once five of them came in and were caught eating with us. They were wearing American uniforms taken from our dead. Well, those five Japs were finished off with knives, cleavers or just anything we could grab. Once when we were bathing a native pointed out a Jap in the same pool. I think he was drowned."

Sgt. Westbrook says definitely the Japs are often doped. Once we gave a buddy a drink from a Jap canteen because he had been badly wounded and needed water. The canteen had been doped. It was frightful there in 120 degree temperature and raining just about every hour of the day, a steaming jungle. "Sgt. Westbrook says the Japs are very ignorant and of the lowest possible moral type. Many are starving because the navy has isolated so many pockets. Sgt. Westbrook was asked how the men reacted to the sudden catapult into this maelstrom of war. "Well, I saw a good many boys crack up and a few officers. It was not a pleasant sight. One day I was in a fox hole with four and I had to restrain them because they were so panicky they would run right into danger. That was during a Jap plane attack, a severe one when 150 ships came over us. There are all types of men. I think the boys who got out in life early and got a few hard knocks make the best soldiers. I'm mighty glad I am a Texan."

Sydney Papers Defy Censors; Editions Seized

Melbourne—Monday morning editions of the Sydney Morning Herald and the Daily Telegraph were seized by peace officers today for defying censorship orders not to publish a news story.

The newspapers jointly defied the censor and censorship regulations after peace officers had confiscated most copies of the Sydney Sunday Telegraph for refusing to treat a certain story in a certain way.

Both newspapers then published accounts in their Monday morning editions detailing events that led to the dispute.

In explaining the first seizure, Information Minister Arthur Calwell asserted the newspaper had defied a censorship order to treat a certain matter in a certain way. He did not mention what it was. Censorship regulations forbid specific reference

SEVASTAPOL DOOMED AS REDS CLOSE IN

Soviet bombs and shells smashed at German and Romanian troops striving to escape from Sevastopol by sea last night as Moscow announced Red army troops were pressing tighter about the city and a Soviet dispatch predicted the great naval base in the Crimea would capitulate before dawn Monday.

The Russian communique announced the capture of Yalta, port 30 miles east of Sevastopol on the south Crimean coast, as well as 40 villages by the Red Maritime army. Front dispatches declared the Fourth Ukrainian army had pressed to within two miles of the city. The communique did not mention the assaults into the to any items censored.

The Third Ukrainian army made new crossings of the Dniester river, outflanking Chisinal, capital of the pre-war province of Bessarabia, the Soviet bulletin announced. Other forces hacked at the east-west German defense line from Chisinau to Iasia, in Romania proper, Red army forces were within 30 miles of the Galati gap guarding the old fields at Ploesti.

A special Russian announcement declared Marshal Ivan S. Konev's Second Ukrainian army had killed or captured 147,793 enemy troops from March 6 to April 12 during its 260 mile drive from near Vinnitsa in the Ukraine across the Bug Dniester, Prut and Siret rivers to Faltinesti, northern Romania.

With attention focused on Sevastopol, pride of the Crimea, Soviet front dispatches said "soon the Crimea will be cleared of the invaders."

The German DNB agency declared American bombers from the Mediterranean heavily bombed Belgrade, Yugoslavia, for the first time Sunday, causing casualties and damage, and attacked the Romanian city of Brasov. AUSTRALIANS KNOCK OUT BIG JAP BASE

Australian troops captured the Japanese outpost of Bogadjim Thursday, climaxing a gruelling six month march over the mountains and jungles of interior New Guinea. General Douglas MacArthur announced Saturday.

The Japanese garrison fled before the Aussies entered the town.

A 20 mile highway, the finest the Nipponese built in New Guinea, leads from Bogadjim to bomb wrecked Madang, the closest enemy base to the slowly advancing Allied coastal forces.

Two hundred miles to the north-west Allied bombers poured 250 tons of explosives on the Wewak air-dromes, blowing up two munitions dumps and destroying 63 buildings. South Pacific air forces struck heavily at Rabaul, to which Japanese on nearby New Britain have retreated. Thirteen gun emplacements were hit.

SUPPOSING EVERY CAR IN AMERICA HAD ONLY 3 TIRES

Supposing we woke up tomorrow morning and found that every automobile in every garage in America had one flat tire ruined beyond repair... And not one spare tire from Maine to California to replace them! Of course, that isn't going to happen tomorrow, or on any one day... but little by little it could happen... unless we take care now. It's up to every one of us to guard the mileage in our tires as we have never done before... That is our duty and our trust to those who work for us and to those who fight for us.

Here's how you can use

COFFEE AS AN AID IN REDUCING

Plenty of Exercise

That's taken for granted. Right. But drink Admiration in the course of your exercise. Admiration picks you up, postpones fatigue, and supplies extra energy with which to carry on your activities. You'll find you tire less easily, have much more strength, and feel better.

Watch Weight

This is most important, for you can thereby control your eating and progress. Quick loss of weight, authorities agree, is not healthy. Gradual loss is better. It's the least bothersome too. An occasional cup of Admiration in place of an in-between meal snack is ideal, for it satisfies the desire for food, yet supplies practically no weight-building food values.

Moderate Eating

To be sure. Many authorities maintain most excessive weight comes from over-eating. Admiration Coffee drunk with your meals will increase the flow of gastric juices in the stomach, thus facilitating better digestion. Its energy-giving goodness also will give you a quick satisfaction, reducing the desire for a large amount of food.

Frequent Recreation

Recreation is good for the spirit as well as the body. When people have little else to think of or do—they eat. And in weight reduction the idea is to stay away from food as much as possible. Thus as you pause in your recreation and others suggest food—make yours a cup of Admiration Coffee. Its flavor and aroma will give you as much enjoyment as food gives others.

Admiration Coffee Picks You Up

It's the pick-up in coffee that makes it the universal beverage of good cheer. Coffee postpones fatigue. It relaxes, brightens the perception... all the senses... and increases physical strength. When you add to this the delightful flavor and richness of a blend like Admiration... well, weight reducing isn't such a task as it might appear.

Waste Paper Should Be Clean; Complains To Merchants Here

We would like for some of our merchants to see what is coming from their places of business along with supposed to be clean waste paper for the war effort. Not a citizen in town would consent for his children to see some of it. The man picking up the paper is not to blame for it.

In the name of our government and the Boy Scouts, we are asking for your 100 per co-operation to make this patriotic work a clean game whereby every person will benefit by it to the same extent.

ANY PLACE OF BUSINESS can furnish two boxes for waste. In one you may place the filth including the floor sweepings. In the other you may leave all kinds of clean paper, boxes, etc.

Those few places failing to work with us, understand their waste will be carried to the dump grounds and burned along with their good material that could be salvaged.

Gardening for Victory

along the

Soon travelers will be seeing plots of beets, beans, tomatoes, corn and other needed vegetables "coming along" on both sides of our tracks.

For once again Santa Fe has made its right-of-way available to its employees for Victory Garden space.

This railroad is heart and soul behind America's Victory Garden project. Not only has land been made available, but we are offering $2000 in War Bonds to our best Victory Gardeners as an added incentive toward helping "Food Fight for Freedom."

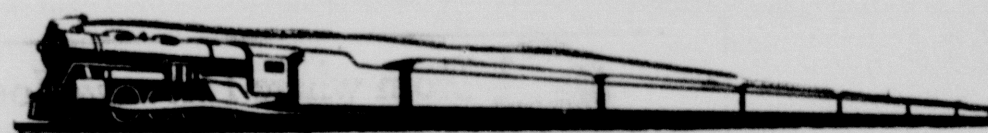

Located as we are "Along the Route to Tokyo," Santa Fe people throughout our 13,148 miles of track can "feel" this war. They are working full hours to move along the never-ending loads of guns, tanks, men and munitions.

Perhaps that's another reason why they're not only working harder on their railroad jobs, but are pretty fine War Bond buyers and Victory Gardeners as well.

It's Santa Fe all the way for the U. S. A!

The Minuteman is Still the Man of the Hour

The Minuteman was a most resourceful civilian who worked hard for his family and home and was quick to fight when their security was threatened.

He did the very things we are asked to do today. He made things last. He wore things out and did without. He was one of the first to stretch food and fuel.

Farmers, fishermen, sailmakers, smiths or cobblers—all were Minutemen—all were dreamers who loved their America—all were doers who fought and saved and sacrificed. They showed us the way to win.

Americans, since the days of the Minuteman, have welcomed their opportunity to earn security for themselves and their families in a better world.

Today, when wartime trials provoke us, America is recapturing the spirit of '76—America's fighting spirit, so perfectly symbolized by the Minuteman—the spirit that will hasten Victory by hours, by days, perhaps even months.

Americans have always been neighborly. It is quite natural then for Budweiser to be America's favorite beer—for, when good friends get together, Budweiser is a friend that needs no introduction.

In addition to supplying the armed forces with glider and bomber fuselage frames, wing parts, gun turret parts and foodstuffs, Anheuser-Busch produces materials which go into the manufacture of: Rubber Aluminum • Munitions • Medicines • B Complex Vitamins • Hospital Diets • Baby Foods • Bread and other Bakery products • Vitamin-fortified cattle feeds • Batteries • Paper • Soap and textiles—to name a few.

Requests for Canning Sugar Can Be Filed With Board Monday

The Milam County Rationing Board will begin receiving applications Monday, April 24th, for canning sugar. The Board urges housewives to mail their applications. The retailers will assist the Board with the distribution of application forms. Every retail grocery in Milam county will have a supply of these applications by the end of the week. Allowance this year will be the same as last, that is 25 pounds per person, but the allotments will be made in two parts. Limit for the initial allowance is ten pounds and later in the year, if needed, ten more can be issued. There is available now the five pound sugar stamp No. 40 in War Ration Book No. 4.

Housewives may follow this procedure in applying: Obtain application form No. R-323, read the application carefully first, answer all questions fully, and be sure name and address are legible. List the names of the persons of the family unit for whom application is being made and attach securely Spare Stamp No. 37 from Book 4 (not Sugar Stamp) for each person for whom sugar is being applied. Mail it to the Milam County Rationing Board, Cameron, and they will return by mail coupons or ration currency for which the application has been approved. The Board asks again to please mail applications for no coupons or ration currency will be handed out over the counter.

Douglas Barron Gets Police Job; Named By Mayor Smith

Douglas Barron has been appointed a member of the city police force, his name submitted to the Council Tuesday night by Chas. C. Smith, who took oath as Mayor.

Mr. Barron has been employed as jailer by the county and has made his home at the jail. It was understood that he had resigned this place to take the job with the city.

Mr. Barron will succeed Jim McGoldrick whose term expired Tuesday along with that of Leland Green, retiring Mayor.

City Marshal Dan Lunsford, it was understood, did not ask for a deputy, although he had stated his intention to do so. The law gives the Marshal the right to name his deputy. Mr. Barron is not a deputy marshal but is employed direct by the city council.

HE HAD THE NAME RIGHT, ANYWAY

Here's one from a Missouri exchange that will bear repeating Down in Arkansas—or, it might have been somewhere in Missouri—a Fourth War Loan bond-selling committee came upon the cabin of a mountaineer back in the brush. He had never heard of the war. "Paw, what did them fellers want?" yelled the old lady out of the window as the committee turned the bend in the lane. "Aw, Maw, they was a feller named Roosevelt that got into trouble with a gal named Pearl Harbor somers over on Church Hill. They wanted me to help go his bond."

"Poncho" A Cameron Horse Wins at Dallas With R. G. Grabein Up

"Poncho" a fine chestnut sorrel horse, owned by R. G. Grabein of Cameron, has just won new honors, this time at the Dallas horse show in competition with 44 horses.

Mr. Grabein entered "Poncho" Friday night in Dallas in the ranch pleasure horse division of the show. He was judged on looks and performance. "Poncho" came through in grand style to take second place and Mr. Grabein was sharing his pleasure Monday with friends here and was justly proud of the big red ribbon cluster with gold lettering which testified that his horse had justified a lot of training and confidence.

This is the second time this year that "Poncho" has won. He placed fifth at the Fort Worth Fat Stock show for ranch pleasure horses in March. He won third place at Waco when he was 4 years old. "Poncho" is now 5 years old.

"Poncho" is a Cameron born horse. In his veins is the blood of illustrious forebears who came from the Blue Grass regions of Kentucky. He was born on the P. W. Davis farm here. "Poncho" was sired by Dixie Lad, now owned by Dr. D. P. Smith of Cameron. The mother of "Poncho" was "Marie" a mare foaled and reared at A & M College. His grand father was "Liberty Loan," another A & M stable celebrity and his great grand father was "Mountain Peak," who came out of Kentucky.

"Dixie Lad" was brought to Cameron by J. H. Colley who now lives at Round Rock. Recently he asked to see "Poncho" the sorrel colt he saw last just a few days after he was born. Needless to say that Mr. Grabein took him at once to Poncho's stable. Both are horse lovers.

Mr. Grabein entered his horse in the Dallas show without much preparation and because of that fact his performance was the more remarkable.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Soldiers' Wives and Post-War Married Life

A psychologist offers some mighty sensible advice to husbands and wives separated by war. He believes "lack of tolerance" rather than loss of affection is most likely to cause post-war marriage difficulties.

The wife has built wonderful pictures of how perfect life will be when her husband gets back. And he dreams of evenings with her by the fire with a glass of beer, friendly conversation, and no problems or worries.

Of course, it isn't true that just getting back together will make life perfect. There'll be the same domestic problems, the same complications and adjustments, as always.

That's where tolerance is going to be mighty important. Tolerance for a husband who spills ashes on the carpet sometimes. Tolerance for a wife who spends a little too much money for a funny-looking hat. Yes, tolerance is a mighty good foundation for any marriage.
